

WORKPLACE FATAL AND MAJOR INJURY RATES FOR 2023 AT RECORD LOW, MATCHING BEST IN CLASS STANDARDS

Improvements reflect the collective efforts of businesses, industry associations, workers, unions and the Government to strengthen WSH ownership and culture.

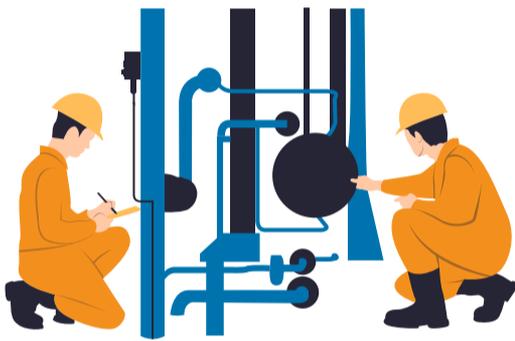

FATAL INJURY

(per 100,000 workers)

2023: 0.99 ▼

2022: 1.3

First time Singapore has achieved a rate of below 1.0 per 100,000 workers. Only four OECD countries have achieved this consistently.

MAJOR INJURY

(per 100,000 workers)

2023: 16.1 ▼

2022: 17.3

Lowest recorded major injury rate in the past decade.

Improvements in the Construction and Transportation & Storage sectors from 2022.

Construction

Fatal and Major Injury
(per 100,000 workers)

2023: 31.9 ▼

2022: 34.9

Top Cause for Construction Incidents

Falls from Height

(Number)

2023: 37 ▼ 33%

2022: 55

Manufacturing

Fatal and Major Injury
(per 100,000 workers)

2023: 36.3 ▲

2022: 30.4

Top Cause for Manufacturing Incidents

Machinery
Incidents

(Number)

2023: 52 ▲ 24%

2022: 42

Transportation & Storage

Fatal and Major Injury
(per 100,000 workers)

2023: 20.4 ▼

2022: 26.6

Top Cause for Transportation & Storage
Incidents

Slips, Trips &
Falls

(Number)

2023: 19 ▼ 10%

2022: 21